INFORMATION PLEASE: Our President, Lavern Morrisset, asks the whereabouts of a scrapbook belonging to the Society. It was formerly kept at the home of Miss Mary Holmes until the library belonging to the Society was moved to the Tennessee Room at Jackson Madison County Library.

IN RESPECTFUL MEMORY of the late Mrs. John Ross Long, nee Louise Mathis, an active member of our Society, a book is being placed in the Tennessee Room by the Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society. Mrs. Long was Regent of the Humboldt D.A.R. Chapter and a former teacher. She installed the present Society officers at our December 1974 meeting.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Five-generation Pedigree Charts have been purchased by the Society for the purpose of establishing a Pedigree Chart File to be kept in the Tennessee Room at the Library. Local members are urged to pick up the blank charts, fill them out and return to the Tennessee Room for filing. Out-of-town members are encouraged to submit completed charts using an 8 x 10 five-generation chart. These are available from Everton Publishers, 526 N. Main, Logan Utah. Form P7.

SOCIETY BUSINESS

At our June 12 meeting, the Society voted to donate $300 immediately to the Jackson Madison County Library toward the purchase of any Tennessee census microfilms which are not now a part of the library file, including the recently released 1890 Census. $200 additional is to be donated at a later time, pending publication of "Riverside Cemetery Tombstone Inscriptions" by the Society later this year.

OUR THANKS TO

Dr. N. C. Hughes, Jr. for a copy of his new book "The Civil War Comes to Dade County" (Georgia). It will be placed in the Tennessee Room. It includes an 1860 Census of Dade County, Ga., Confederate Units raised in Dade County, an 1870 Census, an 1880 Enumeration of Heads of Households and a complete index. It contains 200 pages of information including over 4,000 names. A copy can be obtained by writing N. C. Hughes, 107 McFarland Ave., Chattanooga, Tn. 37405 and including a check for $10.50

TWO BOOKS WHICH MIGHT BE OF INTEREST to Society members are: "The Researcher's Guide to American Genealogy" by Val D. Greenwood. 929.1G and "Slaves Without Masters" by Ira Berlin, 301.4493B. These books are at Jackson Madison County Library and may be checked out for use at home.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION, 1833, BOLIVAR, TENNESSEE

The following was transcribed from the Southern Statesman, a Madison County Tennessee newspaper on microfilm, dated July 20, 1833, by Mrs. L. R. Mitchell.

FOURTH OF JULY

The Anniversary of American Independence was celebrated in the town of Bolivar (Hardeman County, Tenn.) with less parade than usual on such occasion. There was, however, a bountiful expression of gratitude felt at the return of this day. At twelve o'clock the Declaration of Independence was read at the Court House, after which a respectable number of gentlemen set down to a sumptuous dinner - at which good feeling prevailed. E. R. BELCKER, Esq. presided, assisted by Capt. R. P. NEELY and J. C. M'KEAN, Esq. After the removal of the cloth, a number of excellent toasts were drank, under discharges of cannon and music. We select some of the volunteers.

By PITSER MILLER, Esq. - Agriculture, Commerce and Manufactures; equally necessary to this Republic.

By JOHN H. BILLS - the tree of Liberty; let every human being partake of its fruits.

By J. C. M'KEAN, Esq. - the power of changing our Rulers; the happiest feature in our American System.

By THOMAS J. HARDEMAN, Esq. - the scars and honors of those who have battled for their country, let us remember with gratitude.

By WM. W. LENNARD - James Madison, the apostle of Liberty, the Philosopher and Statesman.

By Capt. R. P. NEELY - In our celebration of this Anniversary, we should not forget a sentiment to the great and patriotic Jefferson.

By Mr. R. MOTT - Wife, children and friends.

By Maj. J. C. HERNLY - Gen. George Washington, who won our liberty and Gen. Jackson who maintained it; may their worth never be depreciated.

By Maj. ALLEN HILL - Other nations may boast of their laws and Institutions, but for us we are for Union; the whole Union and nothing but Union.

By Dr. C. C. COLLIER - The Hon. Daniel Webster; the undoubted friend of his country, and deserving the full confidence of the American people.

By Dr. W. C. WHITE - The North and South; like two fond lovers, their joining only lasting long enough to rivit their attachment the closer.

By ICHABAD WATKINS - Our present Chief Magistrate; correct in his principles; true to his purpose; prompt in execution, and firm and unyielding as the adamant, he has extorted praise even from his enemies and compelled them to acknowledge that he has been twice the saviour of his country.

By O. MALONE - the love of country, the love of harmony and the love of home, the three civic wreaths which wind around the enjoyments of this day.

By J. B. LACY, Esq. - Nullification: the great political question; may it shortly be eradicated from the mind of every true republican citizen of the United States, and take with it the Cholera, and all such pestelential diseases.

By T. W. PINKARD - short shoes and long corns to the enemies of freedom.

By PAUL WILLIAMS - as the old Hickory reclines, may innumerable sprouts grow up.

By REUBEN OLIVER - May Washington never be forgotten, and the bark of old Hickory never decay.

SEASON OF WHISKERS. — It is worthy of remark that when cold weather approaches and all other vegetables begin to fade, whiskers sprout up & flourish with the utmost vigour. Many a fact, which in summer appeared as barren as the deserts of Arabia, is now covered with a most luxuriant crop. Every thing in its proper season — cowslips in the spring, cucumbers in summer, cantelopes in autumn, and whiskers in winter.

I saw several boys but did not speak to any. Aunt Lifies baby is still sick. Retire with Ada.

May 27 - Saturday. Rise early find Aunt Lifies baby very sick. Ada went home today at 12 o'clock. In the evening it rained a long time then it cleared off. I went to the Institute after Laura Blakeley to come and spend the eve. with me when I got there she was a sleep. I woke her and she got ready and come. When I got home I found Willie Pettus & Fannie Theus here so we had a jolly time. They staid till most night then we went home with Willie and from there up to the Institute with Laura. I saw H.H.F. and spoke to him. We like to have got caught in a rain but did not.

May 28 - Sunday. Rise early get ready and go to S. School. Mrs. Woodard talk about giving the Ticket but I know I will not get it. See everybody (every body to me rather) group in Church not Cally Gates & Mollie after we get up there I saw Willie Pettus so she went in with us. I return hom of Preaching in company with Willie some of the way the rest with Uncle Hugh. I heard a splendid sermon from Rev. Heard. After dinner I went to sleep slept a long time then got up and went up to Aunt Ellen Harris's find nobody home. Go down to the plum trees and eat a few plums. Start home see Miss Jennie Williams ask her to walk with me. So we go to Bro. Pettus's get Willie & take a walk out to the Catholic Convent. When I come home I hear that S. Hale & Mollie had been here. After supper get ready and go to Church with Cousin I. O. Benton. Come home was very restless all night. Oh! could I but efface that immagine from my mind.
